Digital Badges

Individuals who participate in a workshop at the Annual Meeting will be eligible to receive a digital badge. Digital badges are web-enabled versions of a certification or learning outcome which allows you to manage, share and verify your competencies. Badges provide your peers and employers with concrete evidence of what you've completed to earn the badge and your new capabilities. You can easily share your badges online through LinkedIn, Twitter, Facebook and email, and you can embed it in a personal website or your email signature.

SRA's badge program will be managed online through Credly's Acclaim Platform. These badges will be provided to you for no additional cost upon completion of this year's workshops. If you have any questions about these badges, please reach out to Melanie Preve or Mary Lou Scarbrough.

Email fraud alert: A member of SRA-Japan received a fraudulent email requesting money to help another SRA member with travel funds. The emails were sent from several fraudulent email addresses claiming to be an account of the SRA President, specifically president.sra@aol.com and president.sra@outlook.ph.

While we believe this was an isolated incident, we want our members to be aware.

Are you a member of another organization that could benefit from co-sponsoring an event with SRA?
